Policewoman Hahn New BPW President Here

Mrs. Jack Hahn, 320 Via Linda Vista, Redondo Beach, a policewoman in the Torrance Police Department, was elected to the presidency of the Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club at the recent meeting.

Mrs. Hahn is currently a supervisor in the special service division of the police department handling records and identifications.

She succeeds Mrs. Dale Shrum, who served the club as president for 1958 and '59. Her term of office will be from 1959 to '60.

Elected serve with her were Mmes. Robert Lewellen, first vice president; Gene Walker, second vice president; Lillian Curtis, recording secretary; Albert Dumont, corresponding secretary; Robert Beck, treasurer, and Bernard Lee, auditor.

Mrs. Hahn, whose husband, Jack Hahn, is a sergeant on the Torrance Police Department, has two sons, Tommy Holmes, currently in the Marine Corps as a Hydraulic Jet Specialist, stationed at Cherry Point, N.C., and Dennis Holmes, majoring in general education at El Camino College.

Her career has been an active one. In 1952 she returned to college, graduating with a Police Science degree from El Camino, and is now in her third year at Long Beach State College. She has been an active member of the Torrance BPW and in her five years as a member has held the offices of treasurer, second vice president and first vice president.

She is also a member of the State Women's Police Officers Association and the County Women's Association. Both Maxine and her husband are avid golf players, and they spend as many hours as they can on the golf course.

Mrs. Hahn will be installed as president of the BPW March 16, at the Palms Restaurant. Her husband, her son, Dennis, and Chief Percy Bennett and his wife, Addie, will attend the ceremony.

Installing officer for the affair will be Miss Kathleen Head, past district president and a member of the Long Beach National Club, attending with her will be Miss Hazel Gray, also a member of the Long Beach National Club and the District Emblem chairman.

Fletcher, Crenshaw Vows Are Exchanged

A lovely double ring ceremony at the First Methodist Church of Torrance united Miss Bonnie Lee Fletcher and Gene Arthur Crenshaw in marriage March 28 at 4 p.m.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fletcher of 2462 Sonoma Ave. approached the altar on the arm of her father wearing a bridal gown of white lace over taffeta. Her bouquet was of white carnations and orchids. Attending her as maid of honor was Miss Pat Wills in a blue lace dress carrying intermingled blue daisies and pink roses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crenshaw of 21065 Amy Ave., chose his friend, Harlen Treskes, to serve him as best man.

Following the wedding the bride and bridegroom were honored at a reception given at the home of the bride.

The newlyweds are both graduates of the 1958 class of Torrance High School. The new Mrs. Crenshaw is employed by the Bakermaster Bake Shop, South Bay. Her husband holds a position with Stardust Decorators in Los Angeles. The couple are now at home at 2119 1/2 Border Ave.

Businessman's Lunch to Up Guild Pledge

Swedish meatballs on St. Patrick's Day in a Norwegian lodge hall. This is the outline of today's project by the Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild.

Another "Businessman's Luncheon" will be given March 17 as a means of helping fulfill the Guild's hospital pledge. Mrs. Charles Crawford, Guild president, and Mrs. Merritt Shepard, general chairman, announce that the luncheon will be held at Ulbrand Hall, 1125 S. Gaffey St., San Pedro.

The Guild will convene March 16 at the Hacienda Hotel for the next business meeting.

Dr. Merle Boyce, Redondo Beach, will be guest speaker. Final plans for the luncheon will be detailed and Mrs. B. O. Harris, nominating committee chairman, will present a slate of proposed officers for the new Guild year.

Reservations for the meeting may be obtained through Mrs. Frank V. Lane.

Mrs. Robert G. Hill, president of the Long Beach Osteopathic Hospital Guild, was guest speaker at the last meeting. She related her Guild's experience in operating a gift shop.

Also present were Mmes. G. F. Quiros and Otto Frantzich, Auxiliary members who have attended every BHOH Guild meeting since its inception, as representatives of their division. Their roster is composed of doctor's wives, and has been active for four years as an adjunct to the Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Association.

Broadway Style Show Accents Budget, Style

"High Styles on a Small Budget," the spring collection of Miss Hope Reed, will be presented at the Broadway Del Amo fashion show March 18 in the Sportswear department at 12:30 p.m.

Miss Reed will appear in person with dresses selected from her line priced under $15.

In her opinion women need more clothes than ever before as they are leading lives of such varied activity.

Her designs, inspired by a group of blouses brought back from Paris, range from the casual shirtmaker to dressier styles.

The fabrics are mainly of the easy-to-care-for type, in a selection of delicate spring colors. There will be a door prize drawing of a Hope Reed dress following the show.

Miss Reed may be seen on Dorothy Gardiner's Milady program March 16 from 3:30 to 4 p.m.

Davis-Stevens Nuptials Vows Are Exchanged

Baskets of white and salmon gladioli, stock, carnations and chrysanthemums combined with tall white candles decorated the First Christian Church for the wedding services of Miss Gail Elizabeth Davis and Ross Jeffrey Stevens.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Davis, 2413 Andeo, the bridegroom the son of Mrs. Olive Stevens of San Pedro.

For her wedding day the bride chose an original creation by Angelo. The gown featured a fitted bodice and scalloped neckline edged with lace, pearls and sequins.

The tip-toe length skirt billowed in layers of tulle inset with lace. A pearl and sequin coronet caught her illusion veil.

Maid of honor, Helen Sands wore a contrasting gown of white embroidered organza over deep salmon tulle and ribbon. The D'Orla original was of ballerina length. Her hat was of matching salmon tulle and ribbon and her bouquet of salmon tulips was tied with tulle and satin.

The gowns of the bridesmaids, Misses Jorran Rubeo and Charlene Todd were identical to that of the Maid of Honor but in paler shades.

William Stevens acted as his brother's best man with ushers,

Robert Bowles, Sam Sardisco, George Abramovic and Tony Johnson, completing the bridal party.

Rev. H. M. Sippel officiated at the ceremony in which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds were honored at a reception at the Torrance YWCA.

A white damask cloth, an heirloom of the bride covered the bride's table. An overskirt of white tulle caught into flounces with white lace and satin bows further decorated the table. Salmon and white flowers and tall white candles served as the table's centerpiece. Clusters of wedding bells decorated the hall.

Mrs. H. F. Heinlein was in charge of the reception. Mrs. M. B. Millar and former Torrance High School classmates of the bride served the cake. They were: Misses Gayle Richards, Marti Fowler, Judy Allen and Barbara Barra.

Mrs. Robert Green, sister of the bride was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds left for a two-week honeymoon in Florida. They will make their home at 2708 Gramercy Ave. on their return.

Stevens is a graduate of San Pedro High School and Harbor Junior College. He is employed by the Lewellyn Press, Torrance.
